

Bobby HARREVELD
b.harreveld@cqu.edu.au

Bobby HARREVELD is an Associate Professor, School of Education; Foundation Director, Learning & Teaching Education Research Centre (LTERC) at Central Queensland University, Australia. Her current teaching and research interests are in open and distance education; research higher degree supervision of masters and doctoral students; adolescent and adult professional vocational education; cultural and linguistic diversity in formal and informal learning; English language and literacy. With colleagues, She is currently investigating: transitions (e.g. school-to-work), student voice in online learning; curriculum and pedagogy in dual sector education institutions; dialogic pedagogies in researcher education. Over the last thirty years, She has worked as a teacher and researcher in adult language and literacy teaching; professional and vocational education for university, college and secondary school teachers, industry trainers and workplace assessors.

As part of her community engagement activities, from 2012 she has been appointed by the Queensland Government as the Ministerial appointee to the Board of Trustees at Rockhampton Girls Grammar School. In 2010, she received the Vice-Chancellor's Award for Excellence in Research Higher Degree Supervision at Central Queensland University and Life Membership of VETnetwork Australia.

Associate Professor, R. E. (Bobby) Harreveld, PhD
PhD, MEd, BEd, DipTch, DipT&AS, CertIVA&WT
School of Education Graduate Research Coordinator
Faculty of Arts, Business, Informatics & Education
Building 33, Room 2.37, CQUniversity
Rockhampton Qld 4702, AUSTRALIA
Phone: +61 7 49232391;
GSM: +61 040019768
Email: b.harreveld@cqu.edu.au

Updated in June, 2012