

Dr. Carl Edwin LINDGREN
President of the International College of Interdisciplinary Sciences

Carl Edwin LINDGREN; President of the International College of Interdisciplinary Sciences, an Institutional Member and Accredited Centre of the College of Teachers (London) since 2010; b 20 November 1949; s of Carl Lindgren and Dame Ruby Kate Lindgren (née Corder). Educ. Univ. Mississippi (BAE, Social Science 1972; MEd, History/Education 1977; SEd, Photographic Chemistry/Research Methodology 1993); College of Preceptors (FCP, History of Education 1993); UNISA (DEd, Educational History 1999); post-doctorate work in Neuroscience (gifted children). independent consultant, London, U.K. 1984-1990; Pres., Educational Consultants of Oxford 1990-2002; Prof., American Military Univ. 2003-2008; PhD Dissertation Committee Examiner, Trident University 2012- and External Assessor/Examiner, The College of Teachers 2012 -.

FRAI, 1980; FRSA, 1989; FColIT, 1989; Academician, "Studium"- Accademia di Casale e del Monferrato per l'Arte, la Letteratura, le Scienze e le Varie Umanità fondata nel 1476 - Casale Monferrato, Italy, 2001; Académico Correspondiente, Academia Belgo-Espanola de Historia, 2004; Fellow, World Association of Intl. Studies, 2007; Fellow, World Academy of Art and Science, 2007; Member, Royal Society of South Africa & Royal Photographic Society, 2013-.

Knight Commander, Order of the Immaculate Conception of Vila Viçosa, 2003; Knight Commander, Order of Prince Danilo I, 2008; Knight Commander, Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem, 2008 (with star and gold medallion 2013). Publications: Over 150 peer review articles. Recreations: archaeology, physics, chemistry, archaeology, antiquaries, reading, coin collecting, heraldic research.

International College,
306 Sycamore Street,
Como, 38619, MS. USA
Phone: 1-662-934-8078 or 1-662-934-8078;
Email: lindgren.carl@gmail.com